JOHN'S JOURNAL

Hello my Friends!

Hello my Friends! As you are reading this weeks Newsletter, we will be journeying through days 17 to 22 (M-Sa) of the Lenten Season. On Thursday, March 11 th , we will be halfway through the Lenten Season (20 days). It is my hope and prayer that each of you are discovering spiritual growth during this time of the Lenten season.

Our preaching series, Faith to Believe, did ask once again, a deep spiritual question about whether we are affording Jesus to "know us inside and out." In other words, have we been living our lives in such a manner as to bypass our relationship with Jesus in our real-life matters, or have we given Him complete access to our whole selves?

On Sunday, March 7 th , we heard One Woman's Story…the woman at the well in Samaria.

On Sunday, March 14 th , we will hear One Man's Story…the blind from birth man who was questioned about his sight healing. Just as we discovered that One Woman's Story is our story, I believe that we will likewise discover that One Man's Story is our story as well.

As we continue through our Lenten Journey together, I pray that we are still embracing and living the spiritual disciplines of confession, worship, study, prayer, serving, and giving. I am hopeful that we will discover Christ's presence through these disciplines. We may even discover God's calling, maybe even demanding, for change in our lives that moves us deeper in love with Jesus. That will look different for each of us.

Our Lenten Season continues this Sunday per the below schedule:

…FAITH TO BELIEVE…

March 14, 2021. 4 th Sun of Lent. John 9:1-41 One Man's Story

March 21, 2021. 5 th Sun of Lent. John 11:1-45 The Real Stench to Avoid

March 28, 2021. Palm Sunday. Matthew 21:1-11. Hey, is this a set-up?

April 4, 2021. Easter Sunday. John 1:1-18 The Tomb's Witness of the Risen Christ

Friends of Jesus…I look forward to what God continues to do through our great church in 2021 as we answer our calling from God, A Charge to Keep I (we) Have…it will take all of us…this generation to serve!

In Service to Christ, Bro. John V.
