Connecting Points

We will kick off a series on the Holy Spirit this Sunday called "Wow." You are invited to wear red in connection with Pentecost. Some people think of this day as the birthday of the Church. Many of you will remember that it was one of three holy days the Jews commemorated. They were Passover, Pentecost and the Feast of Tabernacles. For Christians, Pentecost means 50 days after Easter. So, the promise of the Spirit Jesus made his first followers came 10 days after the ascension and 50 days after Easter. Our series will focus on the difference the Spirit made in the lives of the first believers and in each of our lives as we live for God together. Jesus said you will receive power when the Spirit comes on you for the purpose of making a strong and convincing witness of the gospel. If you've ever had more to do than you could possibly get done you know how important help can be. The first disciples went from being cowards to being bold in their proclamation of Christ and it was the Spirit that made the difference. When Jesus said go wait for it, they did just that knowing that the Spirit isn't an it but the "it" it gives makes a huge difference. We sometimes talk about people who have the "it" factor. We are thankful that the Spirit of God doesn't make us better than those who don't have it but it does make us better than we could be without it. Spirit people seek the power of God to be more than they could ever be under their own power. So, come Holy Spirit and fill our hearts with your presence so that your perfect love might cast out our fear and embolden us as faithful and fruitful witnesses of Jesus.
