Connecting Points

I shared some stories Sunday about how people have heard the voice of God. We remembered that we hear God speak through scripture and Jesus, but God also comes to us through others as well as other things like dreams. There are many ways that God speaks and as Christ followers, we believe he spoke the fullest to us though Jesus. The question for us isn't if God is speaking but rather, are we listening?

In my own life, I have had times when I stopped listening for the voice of God and just went about my business. Notice, I said my business. Sooner or later I discover how much I need to reconnect with God and that my life is His business. Jesus knew at a very young age that His life was God's business. So much so that he asked his parents "Didn't you know that I must be about my Father's business?"

Hearing God speak reminds us that our lives are the business of God and what better way to live them than in concert with God's will and desire. Our spiritual practices are meant to connect and reconnect us with God so that we live in concert with God's will.

So, would you like to hear the voice of God in your life? And if you desire to hear, how much more does God want to speak? Let us listen so that as God speaks we hear and respond accordingly.

Blessings,

Pastor Dean

Community
Children's Christmas Party

Prayerfully consider helping with the mission for the children and families in our community. We need help in several areas:

- Sponsor a child/children at $50. Each (Donation to the church office designated for the party).
- Be a shopper.
- Help in the kitchen
- Make a designated donation to the food pantry.
- Join the party in the fellowship hall on December 9 @ 1:30 pm to assist and to welcome our guests.

If you would like to volunteer or have any questions you may facebook message me or my e-mail address is: cchadder@gmail.com

Be a Christmas blessing to a family in need.
