Connecting Points

We've been looking at the "Serenity Prayer" together during my final sermon series. The shorter version prays: "God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference."

This Sunday we will look at the gift of wisdom and how it impacts our lives for God. I will share with you some of the funny and thought provoking renditions of this prayer as we start Sunday's message. Perhaps this week, you would like to not only pray the "Serenity Prayer" but also to rewrite it. It could be a fun and spiritual exercise to see what changes you come up with for the prayer. Here is one to get you started: "Grant me wine to accept the things I cannot change, coffee to change the things I can, and an opaque mug...so my co-workers can't tell the difference." Hopefully, that made you chuckle and helped you see how you can have some fun with the prayer. God, as you recall, created us with a fun drive.

Here is another one that hits close to home for me: "Grant me the serenity to accept the people I can't change, the courage to change the one I can, and the wisdom to know it's me." May God help us this week to not only pray "The Serenity Prayer" but also live it with and for Jesus.

Praying for a Change,

Pastor Dean
