Sunday Message: "Reach Out & Touch Somebody"
Acts 9:36-43

It was so much fun getting to participate in this weekend's D-Now with the youth of Hueytown First UMC! I spent my weekend with a great group of young men and women, we ate, laughed, played, & worshipped the One True King. I remember my days as a youth and the memories I made at each D-Now, crazy to think I'm old enough to be in charge of youths!! Thanks for letting me be a part ! Catherine V.

JUST THINK ABOUT IT

Just Think About It…

Hello Member's and Friends of Hueytown First United Methodist Church!

What a weekend experience the Disciples Now Program was for our Youth on April 29 th to May 1 st ! Enough cannot be said, nor thanks enough given for the congregational support of the Hueytown FUMC Youth Group Weekend Spiritual Retreat. I gave it my best shot in worship on Sunday, May 1, 2022, to give thanks to all that participated in making the weekend a HUGE success for our youth. The folks I feel that I left out were the family members of each of those who served all weekend, for giving up your loved ones as they showed love to our youth. THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU! I hope that each of us will continue to keep our Youth in prayer as they live UNASHAMED OF THE GOSPEL!

One last thank you is needed…as you know, our Youth Director is Catherine, my daughter. She and I walk a fine line with regard to both being on staff at Hueytown First. In fact, it's been stated openly before and I remind you, Catherine reports to the SPRC and not me. We coordinate on youth and its integration into the ministry of our great church, but she reports to the SPRC. We (Catherine and myself) want no one to feel anything other than transparency in her work as the Youth Director. With that being said, it is also my job to give thanks were thanks is due…Catherine, you did an amazing job with Youth D-Now. It was your first venture with such a Youth Event, and it was excellent. Thank you for your time, preparation, team selection, and most of all…LOVE for the Youth. Your church family is thankful for your ministry to the Youth of this great church!

As I finish this week, I only remind each of us that THE FUTURE IS NOW with regard to making disciples of Jesus Christ. I hope your spiritual attention is always forward moving in introducing others to Christ, inviting them to discover Christ's Love, and encouraging them to be a part of the Body of Christ called His church. My name is John, and I am UNASHAMED OF THE GOSPEL! How about you?

… Blessings, Bro. John V.
